

JACKSON COUNTY FAIR QUEEN CONTEST

Committee: Marlene Johnson, Mary Lou Johnson, Sherry Dosland, Shannon Wiemann, Kayla Wilms, Julie Miller, Brittany Hayes

A fair queen contest is held each year and the selection of the queen is made by the Jackson County Fair Board. The fair queen makes appearances at the local fair and then goes on to represent Jackson County in the Iowa State Fair Queen contest. The honor of Fair Queen carries prestige and responsibility as well as attractive financial rewards.

Jackson County Fair's first queen contest was in 1985. With a recess of three years of no contests due to lack of interest, the largest group ever of young women stepped forward in 1998 to create profound renewed interest in becoming fair royalty.
